

EAGLE ACCREDITATION

UNITED METHODIST ASSOCIATION

Join Us: EAGLE Communications Peer Network Wednesday, September 15 from 10-11 AM (Eastern)

UMA is excited to launch the EAGLE Communications Network – a new peer network created to help organizations make the most of their EAGLE accreditation. Together, we can build awareness of EAGLE Accreditation by developing a network of representatives from EAGLE organizations who are able to create/share best practices to promote the value of EAGLE. We also hope to foster relationships between the marketing/communications staff of our accredited organizations.

The EAGLE Communications Peer Network plans to meet about five times per year (every other month). We welcome all those who are responsible for building relationships or communicating with internal stakeholders (employees/clients/board members) and external customers (community/donors/potential clients).

While this network will be initially led by Emily Robbearts, Director of EAGLE Accreditation, we hope to recruit two leaders to chair/co-chair this network in the future.
